

May 28, 585 B.C.

War ended by solar eclipse this day. The armies of Lydia and Media were preparing for battle in Asia Minor when the eclipse occurred. Scared by the omen, the two nations signed a peace treaty.
Modern astronomers have fixed the date of that eclipse at May 28, 585 B.C.

585

1912 Dates J-BK

Visigoths
The Kingdom of the SUEVI in SPAIN was united with that of the West Goths

587 Converted to the Roman Catholic Church

585-590

1912 Dates J-BK

China.

Simultaneously with the growth of the FOBA TONGUSES in north China, a power called the JEVJEN had sprung up in the desert region, and was at the height of its power probably about 585-590

585

Suevi settle in Spain,
(which is now Portugal)

585 B.C.

Eclipse of Sun

Thales of Miletus, on the Basis of Babylonian calculations, correctly predicted an eclipse of the SUN (585 B.C.) and proclaimed, contrary to former beliefs, the dependence of heavenly bodies on natural laws